NORWICH PROHIBITION PARTY PLANS FOR COMING YEAR

Monthly Meetings to Be Held-Fundamental Errors in Norwich's Charter to Be Considered.

The workers of the Norwich prohlbition party, meeting Tuesday evening at the home of the town chairman Levi S. Saunders of 347 Central ave-nue, Greenville, considered plans for actively carrying on new work dur 1910. It was decided to hold regr monthly meetings in room 2 of the block, on Shetucket street, which be open to the general public, men and women. The second Mo of the month was fixed as the ing night, and the first meeting w held on Feb. 14. At this session sides other speaking, it has been ar ranged to have an address by O. E. Ryther on the subject, Fundamenta Errors in the Present Norwich Charter. A discussion will follow as to hew charter.

As a programme committee Rev. J. R. Very and Ernest A. Smith, representing the state prohibition executive committee, were named, and they will manage the affairs of the party locally until officers are elected later. For his work of organizing a local branch of the state party, Mr. Smith is rekindling embers which have been almost dead in Norwich for many years. More and more people are com-ing to believe in the principles of the prohibition party, which has fourteen planks in its platform, only the first two being in regard to alcoholic bev-erages, and it is hoped to build up a flourishing branch here.
